

Reading

As always, reading regularly with your children is very important. Please try to read a little each day. The children brought home two reading books, but please read any material they also have at home. Here are some online tools to encourage your child to read:

- Free activities to download at www.harpercollinschildrensbooks.co.uk
- Free children's books for the kindle at www.freebooksy.com and www.amazon.co.uk
- Free audio books at www.audible.co.uk
- Free audio story read by David Walliams at www.worldofdavidwalliams.com
- Free reading games and activities at www.oxfordowl.co.uk
- Free E-books at www.epicbooks.co.uk
- Free resources at www.booktrust.co.uk
- Daily story read by Oliver Jeffers 'Stay at Home Story Time' at www.oliverjeffers.com
- Bedtime story on cbeebies
