

Week beg: 11.05.2020 activities

Play Dinosaur Discovery on BBC bitesize to learn new things about dinoaurs  anhttps://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zdp4382/articles/znc3y9q	Can you sort the dinosaurs into groups depending on what they like to eat. (you can use template)          Use the powerpoint I've uploaded or use the ebook from last week to help you remember.	Can you draw or paint a picture of your favourite dinosaur and write a simple sentence telling me why its your favourite.
Write a simple sentence about some dinousaurs, use the facts that you have learnt (you can use the template)	Learn all about who Mary Anning the famous paelentologist/scientist was. ( See powerpoint)	Using pots and pans/other things at home can you create sounds that you think would represent each Dinosaur?
Can you read a book and answer questions about what has happened? What characters are in it? Where is it set? etc	Use chalk outside to practise writing your letters and sounds. Can you use your phonics to help write some words in chalk too?	Go on phonics play and practise your phonics sounds  https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/#

