

Make it!

#MathsEveryoneCanAtHome

Designing and building models is the perfect opportunity to use our measuring skills.

Design and build a model using any materials you have in your house. It could be a model of your home, another building or be something completely unique.

How tall is your model? What shapes have you used?
Don't forget to share your photos with us!