

Answers - Miss Trimble

- 1) cheeky
- 2) The children cheered and whooped wildly.
- 3) shoal
- 4) A loud clang was the first sign that something was wrong with the submarine! The submarine then sank slowly and came to rest on the seabed.
- 5) Accept any of the following:
  - Send a message in a bottle to the surface.
  - Turn off the submarine propeller and turn it on again.
  - Someone could swim to the surface to get help.
- 6) In your own words, but see the good example below.

Jasir's plan was to put the submarine into reverse (go backwards). The propeller would spin in the opposite direction, and the sea kelp might untangle itself.

- 7) Any answer which refers to her being nervous, scared, worried etc.
- 8) Your own opinion (I hope you've used your knowledge of sea creatures in this answer)! 😊
